

It's not just a call-for-papers, but a chance to be heard...

A large, stylized American flag with stars and stripes, partially obscured by a dark blue curved shape at the top and a white curved shape at the bottom.

The Social Security Bulletin's refereed section, “Perspectives,” welcomes manuscripts from the research community and others interested in furthering the discussion on how we as a nation can provide the best system of economic security for the aged, the disabled, and survivors of deceased workers, and how we can protect our vulnerable poor.

Papers based on original research in our areas of interest that meet basic professional standards and are supported by solid data analysis may be submitted to the “Perspectives” Editor at perspectives@ssa.gov or mailed to the address below. Submission guidelines are available at www.socialsecurity.gov/policy/docs/ssb/perspectives.html.
